

Sermon on the Web

My friends I come to you on this day June 20, 2012 as a brother in the Christian faith and a free Agent of God accountable to Him. Here in the City of Brampton Ontario, Canada, with our US neighbors, we are privileged to enjoy the many blessings of God.

It is evident that the U.S. economy is getting better as a result of the current administration.

The US Army is fully maintained and serves as a watchtower for the world balanced with an ideology that reigns with love, freedom and grace. Indeed our land is blessed, flowing with milk and honey.

My message today is to examine the issue at hand concerning the President, whom God has placed in power, with his latest support for the homosexual community and same sex marriage. We know that the Bible is the written word of God, and classifies homosexuality as a sin. Just like adultery, lying, cheating and stealing, with these sins we need not be doomed and lost. God's power can forgive us, as long as we have a change of heart. Remember that, if you want this privilege of being forgiven, you must believe Christ is the son of God and that he was raised from the dead. I am a single brother in the Lord and choose to obey God by abstaining from a relationship until a sister in the faith joins me in a union of marriage.

Even our Lord said if we look upon a woman and lust for her in our hearts we have sinned. So how can this uneasiness be taken away from us? We are told that God's love covers a multitude of sins. Trusting in the Lord with time, temptations can be defeated- that is our hope. I have the testimony of Christ in my life and presently received an inspiration to write a song called "The Man Barack". Three months after the song was finished and published the President made his announcement to support the homosexual community with same sex marriage.

There are some Christians who disagree with the President's stand. In the end, whatever you believe about the Bible depends on your interpretation.

It is recorded in the Bible: God said to Abraham "Kill your son". What went through Abraham's mind when God asked him to do such a thing to his son? Abraham, a man full of faith was willing to kill his son to prove his love for God who saw his obedience then allowed him to live. Here is an example of God asking to do something out of character to prove a point. It is possible that God would instruct the President to support same sex marriage to prove a point.

It is recorded in the Bible King Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived, had to rule over two women fighting over one child. The King instructed his servant to cut the baby in half. One woman came forward and said to the other woman, "keep the child". King Solomon put the ball back into the court of the two women which allowed one of them to speak up. It became clear, who the real mother was. It is possible that God is using the President to give the homosexual community same sex marriage, in order to clear it as an obstacle in their minds. Then the individuals can make a choice in their heart to get closer to God.

It is recorded in the Bible the prodigal son asks his father for his share of the family inheritance immediately. The father could have said no but instead he gave his son his anyway. Then the son left home and spent what his father had given him till it was finished. He felt guilty and ashamed and came back to his father's house who opened up his arms wide and accepted him back. God has lots of love for the homosexual community and He is willing to take them back at all cost. Now I am beginning to see it clearly: if the President would have said No to the homosexual community, they would have felt their human rights being violated and become resentful and bitter. I realize such a Law (same sex marriage) is to protect a specific group from persecution.

It is recorded in the Bible, when Jesus was taken up to the Roman ruler to be judged the ruler said "I found no guilt in this man" and proceeded to wash his hands of any decision. It was the crowd that had Jesus killed on the cross. The homosexual crowd is demanding same sex marriage. The president is in a high position of power and is expected to react despite what his personal beliefs are. He is a Christian man with a wife and family. A person may choose to be in a homosexual relationship regardless of this or not. By passing this law, the President is not condoning their lifestyle.

It is recorded in the Bible, the world would be as in the day of Sodom and Gomorrah before the Lord returns which is true today. These signs of the times are prophesied in the Bible. Many immoral acts would take place by choice of individuals. Drastic measures are required in drastic times. In conclusion, we have been praying for Christian leaders such as the President who would have to make decisions to govern unbelievers. God said in the Old Testament to a Prophet, "Go and marry a prostitute", it may seem strange to us. Why can't God say to the President "legalize same sex marriage in order to win the souls of the lost"?

I don't think that the president is making this decision because he's being pressured, but I believe it's God who is instructing him to do so based on how he dealt with people in the past.

May the Lord be with you and your families in making the right decision that is good for you. Peace and love to you in the year of our Lord. May all honor and glory be to the name of Jesus.
